THE PHILIPPINE QUESTION.
The Philippine question seems to have settled itself, or rather to have been settled for the United States by Admiral Dewey and General Merritt. According to advices from Hong Kong the surrender of General Jaudenes last Saturday included the whole of the Philippines, and if such is the case, and circumstances indicate that it is, the matter of the control of the islands as removed from the list of problems to be decided by the peace commissioners. Spain has already advanced the argument that as the fall of Manila occurred after the peace protocol was signed, the status of the negotiations is not affected by the American victory. It is further claimed by the Spanish authorities that General Jaudenes had no power to surrender more territory than that embraced in the city of Manila. Such contentions, however, are not likely to be seriously considered by this government. There is every reason to believe that the United States will retain control of the islands. Whether this will be a wise policy only time can tell.

The Florida Times Union and Citizen is not ready for peace. It calls attention to the fact that Turkey has never paid the just and equitable claim of the United States for property destroyed by the Mohammedans, and says: "Watson is about ready for the Mediterranean now. Send him to Constantinople. We shall only get into trouble by being modest. The Turk understands but one argument: advance it."

Young Putnam and his bride had a hard time finding a parson who would marry them, but in the end they demonstrated the truth of the old adage that where there's a will there's a way.

Spain is said to be opposed to Senator Davis as a peace commissioner. Let Spain attend to her own representatives. President McKinley will name ours.

Uncle Sam is adopting some excellent methods for keeping the peace, one of which is the order just placed for ten million cartridges.

The Philadelphia Press is recovering from the war fever. Yesterday's issue contained a long and elaborately written editorial on "Murder by Mail."

In mustering out the various branches of the volunteer army President McKinley might begin with Secretary Alger.

It is about time now for the friends of Messrs. Sampson and Schley to sign a protocol.

The people of Spain have stopped laughing at Blanco's mule story.

Is the War Over?

Well we hope it is, but we know that summer and hot weather will be with us for some time to come and if you have not already availed yourself of the chance to get a good Detroit Jewel Gas Range you have missed one of your best friends and more, you have missed the comfort that can only be had from the use of gas fuel, which brings delight and happiness wherever it is in use. Talk is cheap you may say and a gas man must "gas" and who can blame him. He knows a good thing—he wants to push it along, and he is willing that his friends should share in the procession. Generous soul that he is, he gives his advice free. It is no trouble to sing the praises of gas for fuel and as for light, its beauty shines so he who runs may be impressed. Gas for fuel at $1.00 is the cheapest fuel if it is economically used. Are you economical? You are prudent and wise. Therefore get a gas range. We will tell you something next week about heating that will surprise you. Call No. 34 on either phone if you can not call. But come if you can.
